Foreword

As time rolls along, we come to the end of our high school career and must bid farewell to the institution which, in the fleeting space of four years, has influenced the lives and character of its members.

It is the purpose of this volume to record, in some measure, the humble contributions of the Class of '38 to our Alma Mater, to portray the school and its activities as they have been this year, and to be a token of remembrance of those friends, places, and events that have been so familiar to us all. May you see in it what we have tried to create—a record of undying memories of the days in which we lived and loved and laughed at Cumberland. With a hope that the students of the present will achieve the success and esteem of past graduates, the Senior Class of 1938 presents this book.

Dedication

To the Rotary Club

In sincere appreciation of the interest constantly shown in our school by the Club and its members, for sponsoring the annual football banquet, which more closely binds together the school and the community, and for bringing to the banquet men outstanding in the realm of athletics for us to hear and meet, the Class of 1938 dedicates this book to the Carmichaels Rotary Club.

CLASS HISTORY

We entered into high school in '35 knowing not what it was all about. We soon found out. We came in with the idea that it was just a play house, and there was nothing to do but hold parties and dances; but, after we found our way around, we learned really to get down "to business" if we wanted to get along at all.

Our class was one of the largest ever to enter Cumberland, but it has gradually fallen off.

In the fall of '37 we advanced to the rank of upperclassmen and planned numerous events. Our first assembly was marked with the election of officers. Elected President was John Herbik; Betty Boyle, Josephine Yurecic, Maria Callaghan and Donald Haggerty were voted the Executive Committee.

At later assemblies we planned the major social event of our year, a combined dance and party. It was the largest and most successful event in the history of the junior class.

Our class was well represented in extra-curricular activities. On the debating squad we placed Marjorie Barclay, Haggerty, and Haver. Ersagovich and Glover earned letters in football, while Herbik received a letter for football and basketball. We also placed Krol, Kovacsik, and W. Lasko on the wrestling squad.

Looking forward to next year we hope to establish as fine a record as the seniors of this year have established. And to the seniors, Farewell!

CLASS HISTORY

Entering just as green as the freshmen in the years before us, we soon learned that high school was unlike the school we had previously attended and that if we were to get anywhere we must depend upon ourselves.

As is the custom, we were compelled by the sophomores to make and wear signs for the first football game. After two attempts for a party failed, the idea was given up.

The first few days of our sophomore year we were busy welcoming the freshmen, as we had been welcomed when we first walked into the building. The sophomore party, although only three-fourths of the class attended, was a success. A sophomore sweater hop was also held.

Our class has contributed to the school its share in sports and other activities. A place on the debate team is held very capably by Mildred Moore. Sammy Palone, a wrestler, shows remarkable ability in the field. Doing well in basketball are sophomores William Gusich and John Barkish.

To the seniors we wish the best of everything in life.

CLASS HISTORY

Approximately one hundred ninety freshmen gazed in wonder before crossing the doorstep of Cumberland Township High School one August morning in 1937. Confused, but eager, we walked for the first time through the halls. We glanced timidly at the upperclassmen, followed our own traffic rules, anxiously entered our classrooms, and made a giggling mess of almost everything we tried; but, somehow, we managed to survive that awesome first day.

There were ordeals of razzing, ducking and embarassment in the days and weeks that followed. But slowly we came to appreciate more and more our new situation. We began to take active part in school affairs. We elected officers. On February 18 we held a party and won the admiration of everyone on the skill with which it was conducted.

Now, although a few of us, slower in adjusting ourselves, are still lost, most of us have caught the spirit of the greater freedom and breadth of high school methods and are enjoying classes and activities more than we ever thought possible.

Bialko in football, Martof and Tekavec in basketball, Homsaker in wrestling are among our better athletes.

As this year ends, we keenly anticipate the next. We bid the seniors farewell; may happiness and success be theirs.

Football

The only Cumberland team in the history of the school to complete its season schedule undefeated and untied was the boast of the 1938 football team, a strong, spirited squad of boys, skillfully directed by Coach Venen and his assistants, Cree and Gwynne. In their victory march our boys defeated one class "AA" school, two class "A" schools, and five class "B" schools. However, in spite of this impressive record they lacked sufficient championship points to get in the championship play-off game. Interesting, too, is the fact that the reigning champions refused to play our team, claiming it to be too strong for them. We still think our boys the best in their class.

The Mikes started the season by upsetting the Donora Dragons, an "AA" school, in a game that saw them come from behind to win. A blocked punt recovered behind our goal line gave Donora a touchdown in the second quarter; the try for extra point failed. In the third quarter we scored a safety when a punt blocked by Tarlosky rolled out of the Donora end zone. Late in the same quarter a drive of 60 yards produced a touchdown for our boys. Monchlovich's placement kick added the extra point. First downs, 9 to 8, and score, 9 to 6, favored Cumberland.

Meeting the gallant Jefferson team before 3,000 enthusiastic, rain-soaked fans, we overcame a worthy foe. When Monchlovich plunged over for the only score of the game, a string of scoreless ties, that had endured between these two teams for three years, was broken.

Against reorganized Waynesburg, held to a single touchdown for three quarters, our lads, honoring Herbik and Monchlovich with the ball-carrying, lashed out swiftly in the fourth quarter with amazing power to score three touchdowns. With this smashing victory we brought the Greene County Championship to our school.

The final test of the regular season came when we met German Township, a class "A" school, on a wet and muddy day. In midfield on a remarkable double lateral, which ended with a tackle carrying the ball, German scored first at the start of the third quarter. With the fourth quarter half over, our boys from their own 30-yard line started a determined drive German couldn't check, and shortly afterward scored the tying 6 points. The extra "point of victory" was carried across. Slowed by the mud, but marching steadily with typical fourth-quarter power, our Mikes were deep in scoring territory when the game ended. First downs, 9 to 5, and score, 7 to 6, both favored Cumberland.

Having concluded their schedule undefeated, the team accepted a challenge to play Adena High School, champs of their section in Ohio. Here, suffering an inevitable let-down after their long, hard season, and opposed on a bitterly cold, muddy field by the strongest eleven met all year, our boys yielded a stubborn 6-0 game.

Three great linemen, C. Lasko, Tarlosky and Callaghan, and our rugged fullback, Monchlovich, were chosen on the All-Greene County team. Monchlovich was All-W.P.I.A.L. fullback; also, on the second team was Poinar; and honorable mention, Herbik.

At the end of the season the coaches, the men of the faculty, and faithful fans of the community expressed their appreciation of the boys' work with a turkey dinner, prepared and served by Miss Rees and her girls.

On January 13, 1938 the Rotary Club entertained the team at the annual football banquet. Frank Gwynne, President, welcomed the boys, coaches, and fans. Mike Monchlovich responded for the team. Principal speaker of the evening, William Kern, coach of Carnegie Tech, stated the advantages of football, cautioned the boys that athletics constitute only a part of school and life, and emphasized the importance to athletes of good scholastic standing.

The members of the squad were introduced by Coach Venen, bringing the banquet, and football for the term, to a close.

The team, as usual, was composed largely of seniors. Lost by graduation will be: Captain Monchlovich, Poinar, C. Lasko, Boyle, Koral, Callaghan, Tarlosky, Yanci, Partica, and Smitley.

Basketball

Long before the final echo of the football season had died away in the Rotary banquet, the basketball team had started its campaign. Working on the principle that the boys should be taught what to do instead of what not to do, Coaches Venen and Cree conducted their team through a successful pre-league season and hit the league games in full winning stride. The season throughout was marked by close games and "first-time wins" for Cumberland.

In their league opener at Waynesburg our boys broke precedent in scoring their first victory. For the first time, a Cumberland quintet defeated Waynesburg on the latter's home court.

After defeating Trinity, and losing to Washington, we nosed out Canonsburg in one of the year's most exciting contests. At the conclusion of the regulation game, the score was tied at 25-all. In the first overtime period, the teams were able to score but one point each. According to the rules, the first team to score two points in a second overtime period shall win. When Paidakovich caged a one-hand shot, it was Cumberland's game, the first ever taken from a Canonsburg five.

Following this hard-won victory our Mikes repeated their wins over Waynesburg and Trinity. Next we met Washington on our own floor in the crucial game of the year. A victory here would have given us a tie with Washington for the league leadership. With Herbik doing most of the scoring, we were out in front until the closing moments of the game. Then, missing foul after foul, we let Washington slip ahead to win.

In the season's finale we again defeated Canonsburg to take second place in our league section.

Lost by graduation will be: Tarlosky, Paidakovich, George, Monchlovich and Yanci.

Wrestling

Under the direction of Coach Bonifield, wrestling has enjoyed its third season in our school. Still new, this sport, as it is becoming better understood, rapidly is gaining recognition from the student body and the community. Wrestling definitely combines competitive athletics with body-building and makes possible the benefits of interscholastic athletics to all boys—including those too small for football and basketball—on a weight for weight basis.

In wrestling the total points scored determine the winning team, but each bout is an individual contest which a boy must win or lose on his own ability. Because of this, every boy must earn his right to wrestle before each match. After a match every position on the team is open, and to enter the next match a wrestler must defeat all the boys in his weight division in eliminations conducted during practice sessions. This gives all boys a chance throughout the year, and the greater intra-squad competition, the stronger the team will be.

Through the year the boys consistently did good work and won seven of their twelve matches. Many thrilling bouts had the spectators in the stands working as hard as the grapplers on the mat.

Culminating the season was the W. P. I. A. L. tournament held at Waynesburg College. Our team placed fifth in a field of seventeen high schools. This standing was the result of the efforts of two men, Krol and Callaghan; all other boys lost in the first round. Krol was third-place winner in the 115-pound class. Callaghan won second place in the 145-pound class.

Graduation will take away from the team: Captain Callaghan, Smitley, Hathaway, Monchlovich, McKee, and McLaughlin. However, a reliable nucleus of reserves and lettermen will be left to carry on next year.

Debate

The call for debaters was answered by a group of youthful aspirants, lured on, perhaps, by the glorious achievements of last year's team.

After several weeks of study and practice, the following students were chosen by Coach Ruth Baily to represent the first team: Affirmative—Mildren Moore and Paul Haver; Negative—Marjorie Barclay and Don Haggerty, the only remaining member of last year's team. Those chosen as the "B" team were as follows: Affirmative—Wilma Moore and Eugene Yanchus; Negative—Marjorie Morofsky and William Young.

Having lost by graduation three members of the State Championship team of last year, Miss Baily is to be commended for her excellent work in rebuilding the team. The prospects for next year are very good, since none of the present team members will be graduated this spring.

Two of the members, Paul Haver and Don Haggerty, made fair showings in an Oratorical Declamation Contest.

On April first and second, the team participated in the County Forensic Contest held at Waynesburg. Winning this contest was the first step toward winning the State Contest by last year's team.

April ninth and eleventh saw the team at the District Contest of the National Forensic League held at State College, Pennsylvania. All four members of the team are members of the National Forensic League. Mildred Moore, Marjorie Barclay and Paul Haver each hold two degrees, while Donald Haggerty holds all four degrees offered by the League.

The team as a whole has won fifteen, lost ten, and has taken part in eighteen non-decision debates up until the time the Cumberlander went to press.

Activities

AVIATION CLUB

The club, originated by Mr. Rich, and composed of twenty air-minded boys, had a very active season. In the first meeting the boys elected Jack Groves as president of the club. Mr. Rich gave out some air terms which the boys learned. Throughout the year the club read aviation magazines brought in by the members. Marino Morino brought in a skeleton of a Boeing plane, which the boys examined. They also saw several movies on aviation. On April 1, the club went to Pittsburgh to visit the airports. Arriving at Bettis Airport, the boys immediately went through the hangars and the classrooms. Then, one by one, the boys went up in a Taylor Cub plane. After leaving Bettis airport, they went over to the County Airport, where they watched the big transports coming in and leaving. The boys inspected the huge hangars and the different types of planes in them. The work of the club gave the boys a greater appreciation and understanding of the aviation industry.

DRAMATIC CLUB

The Dramatic Club, a club which has long been essential in most high schools and colleges, was one of the school's most active organizations. Under the direction of Miss Louise Wilson, about thirty students were instructed in the fundamentals of dramatics. A great deal of time was spent in reading the works of Shakespeare and other authors who rank highest in this field. The club elected the following officers: Jack Groves, president; Clifton Guesman, vice-president, and Louella Bailey, secretary-treasurer. The aims and ambitions of the members of the club are to get an understanding of the terms in connection with the stage, to become acquainted with stage properties and management, to learn to portray characters naturally, and, above all, to be able to appreciate better the works of others in the different phases of dramatics.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

Miss Margaret Rees, the home economics instructor, formed what proved to be among the most worthwhile clubs in the school—the Home Economics Clubs. There were three clubs of this kind: one for the seniors, one for the juniors, and one for the freshmen. The purpose of the junior and senior clubs was to give those girls who wouldn't have an opportunity to take the regular course the chance to get the training during extra-curricular activity period. It also developed in the girls an interest in home making and an appreciation of the good standards in this field of work. The senior club was composed of twenty members with the following officers: Yolande Nieman, president; Anna Bartholovich, vice-president, and Edna Barclay, treasurer. President of the junior club was Melda Mahle; Helen Waters, vice-president; Freda Haines, secretary, and Ann Ellenberger, treasurer. There were sixteen members in the junior club. The freshman club was formed primarily to give the freshmen taking Home Economics a chance to experiment by themselves without being strictly under the supervision of Miss Rees. They planned and bought meals and tried many new recipes. Fifteen members made up this club with the following officers: Gertrude Crick, president; Eleanor Knight, vice-president; Margaret Ruth, secretary, and Leona Ciosmak, treasurer.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS CLUB

The Industrial Arts Club, sponsored by J. Philip Young, was formed this year for those boys receiving "A" grades who are interested in industrial arts. The total membership of this club is twenty-four. At one of the first meetings the following officers were elected: John J. Cole, president; Robert W. Knight, vice-president; Harry Cybak, Jr., secretary, and Frank Ferens, treasurer. This club was formed to do useful jobs in rewarding the "A" students and allowing them the opportunity to do more work in this line. The boys have been very active this year with the following achievements: a battery box and a radio cabinet for the office; a stand for the movie projector; two doors for the supply room; a glueing table; a stage chair repaired and refinished; repairing desks; signboards for posters, and a ticket booth drawer.

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB

The Commercial Club, under the supervision of Miss Josephine Kirkwood, was organized November 19, 1937. This club was formed to bring its members into direct contact with the businessmen and institutions of this vicinity, and to gather information that would be of interest and value to commercial students. The club's first social gathering, a great success, was a Christmas party given by Miss Kirkwood. The biggest event this year occurred on April 20 when fifty-two of the members motored to Pittsburgh on a sight-seeing tour. They visited such interesting places as the Heinz Plant, the Carnegie Museum, the Auto Finance Building, the Post Gazette Building, the KDKA Broadcasting Studios, and the Stanley Theater. The club had a total membership of sixty with the following officers: Julia Maruska, president; Eleanor Ewart, vice-president; Helen Koraly, secretary; Gertrude Wolf, assistant secretary; Mildred Kuski, treasurer; Esther Lee Sharpnack, assistant treasurer; Marcelle Kettering, corresponding secretary; Josephine Kagle, assistant corresponding secretary; Julia Kostak, reporter; Mary Negri, assistant reporter.

SWING CLUB

Among the numerous clubs introduced in the extra-curricular activities of the school, the most popular social groups were the Swing Clubs which were started by the freshman, sophomore, and junior classes. These clubs were new features of the school's social life and were heartily received by the student body. Their main purpose was to increase the students' interest in dancing, and to promote greater social activity in the school. To the achievement of this end, many of the extra-curricular periods were devoted to dancing, and in this way our more reserved and bashful students were taught to participate in this favorite pastime. Each club had a faculty sponsor who supervised its activities. Bennett Rich guided the juniors; Miss Lois Wickerham, the sophomores; and Miss Elizabeth Ross, the freshmen.

GIRLS' VARSITY "C" CLUB

The Girls' Varsity "C" Club, which was organized in 1933, has been one of the most active organizations of the school. The aim of the club is to stimulate active participation in school affairs, to attain and maintain good personal hygiene, and to arouse in the girl a realization that good physical, mental, social, and scholastic attitudes are necessary to a personality that is expressive of the spirit of the school. She is made to feel that it is her duty to keep the standard high. Membership is limited to seniors and juniors. To be eligible for membership in this club, a girl must earn 1,000 points, accumulated during a period of at least two years. The points are given for athletic ability, scholastic activity, personal hygiene, general school spirit and attitude, and high scholastic standing. For earning 1,000 points each member receives an award, a letter "C", which automatically elects her to the "C" Club. For the last few years the girls have also received pins as emblems of their club. This year the club sponsored several "sweater hops" and entertained the Mapletown seniors at the annual Senior Night. All their undertakings have been very successful due to the fine cooperation of the students, alumni, and faculty. The club is sponsored by Miss Harriet Baily, and the following are this year's officers: Yolande Nieman, president; Ellen Kerr, vice-president; and Hilda Levine, secretary-treasurer. The girls who have attained the requirements of membership are: Juniors—Marie Callaghan, Dolores Helmick, Eleanor Reeves, Janet Scott. Seniors—Helen Bars, Claudine Paller Burke, Betty Jean Callaghan, Nan Glover, Ruth Hughes, Norma Johnson, Josephine Kagle, Matilda Kaifesh, Ellen Kerr, Marcelle Kettering, Helen Koroly, Mildred Kuski, Hilda Levine, Edith Lipchinsky, Gertrude Markovich, Ann Miller, Mary Negri, Yolande Nieman, Esther Lee Sharpnack, Grace Stoll, Freda Valli, Gertrude Wolfe.

BOYS' VARSITY "C" CLUB

The "C" Club this year enjoyed its fourth and most successful season under the capable sponsorship of Albert Cree and the guiding hand of President Mike Monchlovich. The purpose of the club is to stimulate greater athletic activity in the school, to purchase sweaters for the senior members, and to give letter awards to the underclassmen. To finance these expenses the club held a sweater hop, candy raffles, sold refreshments at games and at the noon periods, and conducted other social functions. The boys changed their style of sweaters this year, and purchased royal blue coat-styled sweaters with gold letters and stripes. The number of stripes on the sweater indicates the number of years the wearer made a letter in the sport shown on his letter. The presentation of the sweaters and awards this year was made at an impressive ceremony in the auditorium. D. P. Venen, head football and basketball coach, and Frank Bonifield, wrestling coach, gave interesting talks on the success of the teams and the progress of the club. The officers this year were: President, Mike Monchlovich; vice-president, Fred Poinar; and secretary-treasurer, Grover McLaughlin.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society of Secondary Schools was founded by the Department of Secondary-School Principals in 1921. Today there are about twenty-three hundred chapters throughout the United States. It has been an important, though not very active, organization in our school since its establishment here in 1933. This organization was originally planned to stimulate the scholarship, leadership, service, and character of the students in the secondary schools of this country. Now, since it has grown in numbers, its chief objective has become that of raising the secondary schools of the United States to a higher standard. The administrators endeavor to develop students of worth and upright personality, and to influence their lives when they become adult citizens. A pupil must have a term average of three "A's" in order to be eligible for membership. In previous years, three "A's" for semester average were required, but because of the increasing number of members, stricter rules had to be invoked. Mr. Bennett M. Rich is the sponsor of this society. The officers this year are: John George, president, and Mike Monchlovich, vice-president. This year the organization had a record membership of fifty-four members. The names of the members are as follows: Seniors—Eola Bertugli, Jean Centofanti, Eleanor Ewart, Helen Ferens, Helen Galatic, John George, Mary Hollis, Raefield Honsaker, Ruth Hughes, Norma Johnson, Matilda Kaifesh, Ellen Kerr, Marcelle Kettering, Helen Koroly, Julia Kostak, Mildred Kuski, Hilda Levine, Bernard Martof, Carl Lutz, Julia Maruska, Grover McLaughlin, Ewing Miller, Mike Monchlovich, Mary Negri, Yolande Nieman, Matthew Paidakovich, Susie Shanto, Pete Stofcheck, Grace Stoll, Mary Thurston, Fernand Valli, Emery Weido, Gertrude Wolf and John Yanci. Juniors—Luella Baily, Marjorie Barclay, Helen Bell, Mavis Byers, Evelyn Cales, Ruth Cole, Rhoda Frances Crago, Dorothy Crockard, Matthew Cwikiel, Donald Haggerty, Paul Haver, Mary Ann Kaifesh, Alice Koroly, Harry Kott, Genevieve Krol, Arthur Lint, Walter Ondrejko, Quinto Palone, Pauline Rumancik and Josephine Yurecic.

MIKE STAFF

The "Mike", the school newspaper, has been in circulation since 1935, when the students were given their first glimpse of it. Since that time it has risen until it is now one of the outstanding mimeographed publications in this district, having reached its height of popularity this year. The quarters of the press room were changed this year due to the installation of the Home Economics Department. The new quarters were a great asset to the staff. They are much larger and have conveniences for publication which the old press room lacked. This year, several members of the staff attended the convention sponsored by the Pennsylvania School Press Association held October 23 at California State Teachers' College. Those attending were Freda Valli, Grace Stoll, John George, Frank Gdovka and John Yanci. Freda Valli, Grace Stoll and John George gave talks concerning their respective positions on the staff. The members were accompanied by Miss Wickerham, who is faculty advisor of the "Mike". During the past year the staff carried on an extensive exchange of newspapers with other outstanding school publications of western Pennsylvania. Because of their fine work in improving the "Mike", this year's staff was selected to edit the "Cumberlander". Following is the staff: John George, Josephine Yurecic, Grace Stoll, Jack Groves, Charles McMinn, Freda Valli, Jean Centofanti, Matilda Kaifesh, Blanche Wozniak, Wilma Moore, Mary Herbik, Dorothy Campbell, John Bizub and Theresa Maruska. The business department consists of Earle Burnette, Frank Gdovka and John Yanci. The staff loses the following members by graduation: John George, Grace Stoll, Matilda Kaifesh, Freda Valli, Jean Centofanti, Jack Groves, Earl Burnette, Frank Gdovka and John Yanci.

SENIOR NIGHT

One of the outstanding activities on the social calendar of the Senior Class was an event of March 4, when Cumberland's seniors entertained Mapletown High School's Class of '38, at the annual party, Senior Night. The main feature of the evening was a basketball game by the boys and another by the girls. Cumberland won both games. The boys' score was 27-21, and the girls' score was 23-2. Jack Groves and Norma Johnson captured the high-scoring honors for Cumberland. The principal highlight of the evening was a dance which followed the games. The musical entertainment was furnished by "Larry's Melodaires." As a delighful climax for the pleasant occasion, delectable refreshments were served by the luncheon committee, which was composed of: Nan Glover, chairman; Marcelle Kettering, Helen Bari, Freda Valli and Eleanor Reeves. Thanks was expressed to Miss Rees for her helpful assistance in preparing the lunch. The dance committee consisted of Gertrude Markovich and Matilda Kaifesh. On March 24, Mapletown High School returned the fete, and many of our seniors attended the event. Again our seniors were victorious in both games, the boys' score being 25-22, and the girls' score being 29-4. The following seniors from Cumberland High participated in the games: Jack Groves, Charles Lasko, Bernard Martof, Carl Lutz, Harry Koral, Tom Smillie, Grover McLaughlin, Esther Lee Sharpnack, Norma Johnson, Mildred Kuski, Gertrude Markovich, Ellen Kerr, Freda Valli, Julia Kostak, Nan Glover and Edith Lipchinsky. These activities have proved very popular and entertaining, and have formed another link in the chain of friendship between the two schools.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

Following the custom of past graduating classes, the annual senior play was presented by the senior class on April 22. They presented "Three Cornered Moon," a three-act comedy. It was one of the most entertaining plays given by a graduating class. The story is of the Rimplegars, who exchange witticisms with the depression. Elizabeth Rimplegar, lacking more serious things to worry about, cultivates a naive weltsihmerg and plans suicide with her immature novelist fiance. When Mother Rimplegar, vague and flighty, announces the collapse of the family fortune, Elizabeth and her spoiled, idle family are lost, until Alan Stevens assumes a mild dictatorship and induces them to go to work. Sobered by the sanity and sweetness of living by working, Elizabeth becomes dissatisfied with Donald, who, lost in his dreams, feels artistically exempt from the responsibilitses that confront him. Even the mad Rimplegars have learned to adopt more realistic standards of living, though they can never give up their peculiar humor and their inane flippancy. The play was under the direction of Miss Mabel Reigle. Following is the cast:

Mrs. Rimplegar	Lois Wilson
Douglas Rimplegar	Jack Groves
Kenneth Rimplegar	Harry Koral
Jenny, the maid	Norma Johnson
Ed Rimplegar	Millard Kelley
Elizabeth Rimplegar	Hilda Levine
Donald	Otto Callaghan, Jr.
Dr. Alan Stevens	Edward Smitley
Kitty	Betty Callaghan
